What party ballot can a voter request in a runoff election?

- If the voter voted Republican in the Primary-they will vote Republican in the runoff election.
- If the voter voted Democrat in the Primary-they will vote Democrat in the runoff election.
- If the voter voted Nonpartisan in the Primary-they can choose to vote Republican or Democrat in the runoff election.

What if a voter did not vote in the Primary Election at all, can they vote in the Runoff Election?

- Yes they can. They will choose a Democrat or Republican ballot; or a Nonpartisan ballot if there is a nonpartisan election in their county.
