Good afternoon Judge Parker,

I briefed the BOC on your request for an Associate Judge at the recent planning session. No votes were taken at that time. I believe the Board is willing to favorably consider your request. I can place this on the agenda for April 13 so the Associate Judge can get trained. I was timing this to take place as part of the budget for next year, but I can see how it is advantageous to get the training done sooner.

Yours Truly,

Good afternoon. I submitted a request a few weeks back asking for an appointment of Mrs. Davis as an associate Judge for Probate Court. Aside from the budgetary request, would it be prudent to draw an order appointing her? The reason I ask is two-fold - 1) it requires your approval and 2) I need to sign her up for training if it is an approvable situation. If not approved, obviously there is no need for the training.

Not to rush you or put you on the spot, but our next training is in less than three weeks. Your help would be greatly appreciated if it is possible to make an approval at this time.

Thanks for all you do!

Sincerely,

Richie Parker
